

Prayer

Father in Heaven, today I choose to focus my thoughts on You. I choose to treasure Your Word so that my actions will show how much I love You. Use me for your glory and have your way in my life.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Beloved in Christ,

Loving Greetings to you all in the wonderful name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

I am really proud and glad to have this write up, on the pages of this book being published by our Sunday School. My appreciation and gratitude to the entire Sunday School Family - especially the Head Master, the Convener and the Teachers worked behind, for these empowering Golden Verses. "Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path" [Psalm.119:105]. As the psalmist says, let this attempt be a notable experience in our life.

Bible itself is more precious than gold. Here we have selected some pearls from the collection of gold, to memorize and learn. If we keep these golden verses in our hearts, it will help us not to sin against God. ["I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you." Psalms 119:11] Surely the same will talk, guide and save us at our hour of personal need. We shall use the golden verse, as keys to open heavenly blessings.

Let the unchanging words of these verses live in you; and God's abundant blessings be with you all, at all times.

Yours in Christ.

Vicar

“Lord, Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path”

Dear Children,

The Bible is inspired by God’s Spirit. The word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. (Hebrews 4:12)

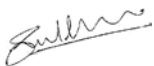

If you have ever tried to memorize a speech or a poem, then you know that it is hard work to learn something so that you can repeat it word for word. Further, if you do not review it regularly, a couple of weeks later, you will forget it. Memorizing passages from the Bible is no different. It is hard work, and could take a huge portion of your time. However, if we look into the Bible to see what it teaches, then we will see that this hard work is not only worth the effort, but it is essential and it is expected of us. This is vital to our Christian growth.

- Jesus knew the word of God and was able to drive away Satan when tempted (Matt 4:1-11)
- King David clearly saw that knowing the word of God was the key to purity. (Ps 119:9-11)
- Paul says that the word is a sword in your armour against the devil’s schemes. (Eph 6: 13-18)
- God’s word in your heart keeps your feet from slipping. (Ps 37:28-31)

As Christians our purpose is to become more and more like Jesus Christ. But how can we do this if we don’t obey God’s word? And how can we obey it if we do not know it and understand it? And how can we understand it if we do not study it, memorize it and meditate on it as much as we can? Obedience to the word of God gives us guidance in everything we do today and into the future. But, it also purifies our minds and heals our hearts from any damage it may have received from past ignorance and sin. Many Christians did not grow up in Christian homes where the word of God was central. Many Christians are trapped in sin and the damage done by these and past sins is hindering their fellowship with God. It is easy for our minds to become filled with rubbish and our hearts to become hard towards God. This is what happens when things are left to run unattended. Whatever you put into your head determines what you think about. What you think about determines what you do. Together, all this determines the kind of person you will be.

We are very happy to present you a wonderful collection of memory verses for you. I congratulate all who labored for this revised edition of ‘Golden Verses’.

May God bless you all.

President

A Note From Your Headmaster

Dear Children,

We are living in a world where Science and Technology are advancing very fast. Unlike few years back, children and elders are very much exposed to different kinds of media, and the level of academic education has risen considerably. However, the character is not catching up with the technology and other academic education. Education or technology without character is useless and of course very dangerous. If we look around the world, we notice that there is an increase of worship places and worshipers, but there is a decline in true spirituality.

We should be able to make decisions in life recognizing what is “nourishment” and what is “garbage” or in other words, to identify “tonic” from “toxic”. It is indeed good to become good professionals in life, but the individual must be good human being with character qualities. Life is full of choices; children should be moulded in such a way that they will have the capacity to make the right choice in life. As Sunday School students we are engaged in a spiritual battle throughout the life – all believers find themselves subject to Satan’s attacks because they are no longer on Satan’s side once they have accepted Jesus Christ as their personal saviour. Here comes the relevance of the “Word of God”. When we are tempted the best weapon to confront the forces of Satan in this world is the “Word of God”.

“Golden Verses” is a collection of living verses which can be of every day use throughout the life from childhood till death. We strongly recommend you to learn these verses by heart, which would be beneficial for you in all life situations. The best time to memorise these verses is when you are a student. Therefore, as Sunday School we encourage you to make use of this precious book as these verses will help you find answers to today’s tough topics which you confront in day to day life.

I wish to express my gratitude to all the members of the Sunday School family, especially Mr. Mathew Chandy, Convener of Exam & Prize Committee-2008 for the initiative to publish the first edition and Mr. Philip Thomas, Convener of Exam & Prize Committee-2010 for publishing the revised edition of this book of great value to our children.

May the good Lord Almighty bless you abundantly in all the situations of your life!

Mathew V. George
Headmaster.

Preface

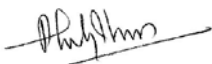

We are very glad to bring out the revised and expanded version of the 'Golden Verses' Collection. Memorizing verses as part of Sunday School curriculum is a practice started from the inception of Sunday school back in the 18th century. "Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it" (Proverbs 22:6).

Each word of the Bible is from God and precious beyond comprehension. This collection is an attempt to help students memorize some of the key verses - emphasizing our faith, hope and love - which could be a beacon in their everyday life. There are 850 such verses - covering all the 66 books of the Bible arranged in sections relevant to the age and class of the children. Thus, a student will get an opportunity to memorize all these verses as he/she attends the class from Nursery to Yuva Vakup.

Let me take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to the entire Sunday School family for their contributions, direct or indirect, towards getting this booklet published. Special mention to our Achens for their guidance, the Headmaster for his constant encouragement, Mr. Mathew Chandy - who spearheaded publishing the first edition - for his continued support and many other teachers and friends who helped in verses selection and proof reading. Also acknowledging the services of Mr. Jacob C. Abraham of Lucky Printers, who rendered his facilities to bring out this book in a very short time.

We, the Sunday School Teachers and the Office bearers alike, hope and pray that this collection will be of immense value to our children as they grow up in their Christian life.

Warm regards,

Philip Thomas
Convener,

“Come to Jesus and bring every Child to Jesus”

Mar Thoma Sunday School, Kuwait

Kuwait Mar Thoma Sunday School is fully affiliated to Mar Thoma Sunday School Sam-ajam and currently has more than 1100 students and 93 dedicated teachers. Regular Classes are conducted on all Fridays from 3:30-5:15 p.m. at NECK premises.

The Mission of the Sunday school

- Inculcate proper understanding of the gospel message.
- Prompting the children to make definite choice in life relating to Jesus Christ.
- Challenge them to promote the values of the Kingdom of God in their lives and to serve others in true Christian love.
- Enable them to face life realities with courage and hope.
- Encourage them to participate in the ministry of the Church wherever they are.
